INTRODUCTION

References:

- A. DI(A) ADMIN 10-1
- B. CA Directive 05/01 dated 17 May 01

1. The Head of Corps (HOC) is responsible for policy and technical matters relating to the Corps. To achieve this, the HOC is authorised to issue statements or instructions on Corps policy and technical matters that are applicable to RACT units or individuals.
2. Nothing in these statements and instructions shall be at variance with Defence or Army policy contained in other official publications.

AIM

3. The aim of this policy statement is to:
  - a. define the use of RACT Policy Statements;
  - b. provide guidelines for the format and content of RACT Policy Statements; and
  - c. indicate the method of amending and updating RACT Policy Statements.

POLICY

General

4. RACT Policy Statements promulgate Head of Corps policy or provide technical information on Corps matters that are not covered by other documents.

Subjects for RACT Policy Statements

5. Subjects recommended for issue as an RACT Policy Statement may be originated by any RACT member, unit or headquarters of the Corps and forwarded through Corps channels to SO2 Corps RACT, ALTC who will have the statement raised in business at the next Corps Committee Meeting.

Contents

6. Each policy statement is to be numbered and is to contain:
  - a. Title Page. The title page is to use the same format as this policy statement.
  - b. Introduction. This should include a brief statement on the need for the policy.
  - c. Aim. This should contain a clear statement of the purpose of the policy statement.
  - d. Content. The content should be succinct and totally meet the requirements of the Aim.
  - e. Distribution List. The standard distribution list for policy statements is contained at Annex A to this policy statement.

Amendment to RACT Policy Statements

7. Suggested amendments to policy statements are to be forwarded through Corps channels to SO2 Corps RACT, ALTC.

Updating of RACT Policy Statements

8. RACT Policy Statements are to be reviewed as required and updated not later than every five years after publication. SO2 Corps RACT is to maintain a record of all policy statements and is to bring to the attention of the sponsoring Section those statements that require updating.
